

Credit Card eStatement Campaign 2025

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

1. I received an SMS about switching to eStatement via CIMB Clicks. What does this mean and do I need to do anything?

The SMS is an invitation for you to opt-in for credit card eStatement. Once you opt-in, effective 17 March 2025 your monthly credit card statement will be made available for download via CIMB Clicks (www.cimbclicks.com.my). The bank will stop sending printed statement to your mailing address.

If you are interested to receive your monthly credit card statement via CIMB Clicks (www.cimbclicks.com.my), all you need to do is SMS ES <space> last 4 digits IC to 62886 by 13 March 2025. Example if the last 4 digits of your IC number is 1234, you just need to SMS ES 1234 to 62886.

2. What happens if I do not respond to the SMS?

If you do not respond to the SMS, you will continue to receive printed statements to your mailing address as usual.

3. I have not updated my e-mail address with the bank. How can I update my e-mail address?

You may update your email address either by:

- Downloading the Credit Card Maintenance form from our website (Click here to download) and e-mail the completed form to contactus@cimb.com or
- Contact Consumer Contact Centre at 603-6204 7788 or
- Visit any CIMB Branch.

9. Are there any Statement Fees if I choose to receive printed statement via mail?

Yes, RM2 Statement Fee per month will be charged to your credit card account.

The RM2 Statement Fee will not apply for the following group of cardholders:

- Cardholders aged 65 and above
- Cardholders who are differently abled*
- Cardholders facing difficulties in accessing their banking statements online (e.g. located in rural areas, without internet)*
- CIMB Preferred customers

Cardholders are required to complete a self-declaration at any CIMB Branch*

10. Will my payment due date change?

Your payment due date remains the same.

11. How can I register to be a CIMB Clicks User?

First, you need to have a Current Account or Savings Account with CIMB Bank. Then, create your Internet Banking e-PIN at any CIMB ATM. Log on to www.cimbclicks.com.my and register online.

12. I noticed that my monthly credit card statement has been switched from eStatement to paper statement. Why does this happen? Are there any Statement Fees?

It is an automated process that occurs when an email bounces after multiple attempts over a few days. Moving forward, your monthly credit card statement will be switched to a printed statement and delivered to you via mail.

A Statement Fee of RM2 per month will be applied and charged to your credit card account.

13. Can I switch back to eStatement after it was switched to paper statement?

14. How would I know if the eStatement has not reached my registered email address? Will I be notified on this?

Yes. If your eStatement is not successfully delivered after 3 attempts, you will be notified via SMS.

Note: SMS delivery depends on your telecommunication provider's service and connection stability.

15. How do I prevent email bounces?

To prevent email bounces, you may consider these common causes and solutions:

- Please ensure your email address is valid
- Avoid using blocked sender IPs
- Check if the email is blocked by the server
- Wait until the server is not overloaded
- Make sure your inbox is not full
- Be aware of auto-replies set
